Asociacion de Amigos del Pais

We had meetings with the following Department of State officials: the Assistant Secretary of State for the Bureau of Inter-American Affairs (Enders, January 1982); the Deputy Assistant Secretaries of the Bureau of Inter-American Affairs (Bosworth, Briggs, January, February, 1982); the Director and Deputy Director of the Office of Central American Affairs (Johnstone, Giese, June, February 1982); the Country Officer for Guatemala (Blohm, January, February, March, April, 1982); the United States Ambassador to Guatemala (Chapin, January 19, 25, 1982); Legislative Management Officer for Inter-American Affairs of Congressional Relations (Bartlett, April 20, 1982). We also had conferences with the Chairman of the Subcommittee on Inter-American Affairs of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, U.S. House of Representatives (Barnes, March 3, 1982), and the Staff Director (Johnson, January, March, 1982) and Staff Assistants, (Kurz, Pubillones, January, February, March, 1982) of that Subcommittee. These discussions involved an exchange of views on the relationship between Guatemala and the United States, the concerns of the Asociacion about the economic, social, and insurgent difficulties being experienced by Guatemala, and the significance of the forthcoming election in Guatemala and the importance of the United States being as supportive as possible in ensuring a successful election.

DFS Group, Ltd.

We have had meetings with an Alaskan State Senator (Fisher, February 9, 1982) concerning a statute which would limit the number of persons authorized to sell and deliver in-bond merchandise in Alaskan airports. We also met with the Commissioner (von Raab, April 27, 1982); the Deputy Commissioner (De Angelus, April 27, 1982); the Senior Operations Officer (Holl, April 27, 1982); the Cargo Processing Division Director (Weeren, April 27, 1982) and the Carrier, Drawback and Bonds Division Director of the U.S. Customs Service (Morrison, April 27, 1982); and met or had telephone conversations with members of the staff of the Subcommittee on Trade of the Committee on Ways and Means (Rohr, Phifer, February 26, March 1, 2, 3, 15, 1982); United States House of Representatives and other members (Bafatis, Heftel, February, 1982); and staff of the Committee (McDavitt, Harrington, February 23, 25, 26, March 2, 3, 8, 19, April 1, 27, 30, May 12, 24, 25, June 22, 23, 1982) on Ways and Means; members (Roybal, Akaka, Addabbo, March 29, April 5, 27, 29, May 4, June 10, 1982) and staff (Gunnels, McGarey, March 30, 31, April 29, May 4, 6, 15, 20, 21, June 7, 9, 1982) of the Subcommittee on Treasury, Postal Service and General Government of the Committee on Appropriations, United States House of Representatives. We also testified at the February 26, 1982 hearing before the Subcommittee on Trade of the Committee on Ways and Means, United States House of Representatives. We also met with Assistants to the Congressman and Senators in the United States Congress of the State of Alaska (Lexo, Gearhard, March, 1982); the Legislative Assistant to the Senator from Hawaii (Ing, March 26, 1982); and the Counsel (Gingrich, April, 1982) for Tariff and Trade Matters of the Subcommittee on Trade of the Committee on Finance, United States Senate. The purpose of these discussions with government officials and members and staff of the Congress was to attempt to bring about a change in a newly announced policy by the U.S. Customs Service which had the effect of providing customs assistance and supervision in the sale of duty-free merchandise to persons not holding concessions from the government authority administering the airports at which duty-free merchandise is sold or delivered.

Hampton-Windsor Corporation (Zaire and Gabon)

We had meetings with the Desk Officers for Zaire (Peashock, January 20, 21, 1982) and Gabon (Wagensfield, January 22, February 24, May 19, 1982) Department of State; the Director of the Economic Policy Staff, Bureau of African Affairs, Department of State (Garrison, January 6, 19, 20, 1982); the African Desk Officer (Isom, January 22, 1982) International Security Affairs, Department of Defense; and the Chairman (Wolpe, April 29, 1982); Ranking Minority Member (Goodling, April 29, 1982), and Staff Director (Carson, April 29, 1982) of the Subcommittee on African Affairs of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, United States House of Representatives. The purpose of these meetings was to attempt to identify and seek means to develop joint economic activities to support the growth of the economic relationship between the United States and Zaire and to reduce the shortage of foreign currency in Zaire and to discuss the relationship between the United States and Gabon and attempt to identify investment opportunities in Gabon for United States companies.

Asociacion de Azucareros de Guatemala

We had conversations with the Country Officer for Guatemala (Blohm, January, February 1982) and the Division Chief, Development Finances and Resources of the Office of Regional Economics Policy, Bureau of Inter-American Affairs, Department of State (Slattery, February 1982) urging the granting of a preference to Caribbean and Central American countries in the allocation of import quotas on sugar.
